Sign up this month in the Lobby to work on Saturday, April 14. There are two sessions: 8:30 - 10:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. - noon. We also need some men to set up tables on Friday and help on Saturday at 7:00 a.m. to carry in the bags of rice, etc. In addition, we will need help to clean up the room for Sunday service. Children 6 and up can help and if you need to sit down and help you can do that also. We need the young people to be runners and the muscles to help carry. We will have the nursery open and one classroom for the tots too small to help.

This project is a great way to meet others within the congregation. We hope to see you there!

Today's Sermon Notes

Lent 2018: Cross My Heart and Hope To Live
 Crossing from Foolishness to Wisdom
 Pastor Jeff Hosmer

1 Corinthians 1:18-25 (NRSV)

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."

Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.
